Mr. Harold B. Hoskins
Director, Foreign Service Institute
Department of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoskins:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to acknowledge Mr. Kilcedin's letter of 30 October 1957, and to express his appreciation for affording us the opportunity to participate in the tenth Mid-Career Course on Foreign Affairs. Employees of the Central Intelligence Agency who have attended the Course have found it to be most interesting and worthwhile.

Mr. Matthew Baird, our Director of Training, will advise the Registrar of the Foreign Service Institute of the name and rank of our designee and furnish a brief summary of his educational background prior to 15 December 1957.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
